Wim Henderickx is a Flemish composer, based in Antwerp. He studied composition and percussion at the Royal Conservatoire of Antwerp and sonology at Ircam in Paris and at the Conservatoire of Music in The Hague. He received numerous awards, such as the Prize for Contemporary Music Flanders-Québec in 1993. In 2006 he was nominated for the Flanders Culture Prizes and in 2011 he received the Lifetime Achievement Award in Lier (BE), his birthplace. In 2015 he was appointed as a member of the Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium (KVAB) for Science and the Arts.

Wim Henderickx is professor of composition at the Conservatories of Music in Antwerp and Amsterdam and he is the main coach on the SoundMine Summer Composition Course for young composers, which is organised by Musica, Impulse Centre for Music.

Many of his compositions are influenced by oriental music and philosophy. Between 2004 and 2010 he worked on the TANTRIC CYCLE, a seven-part composition series based on Oriental philosophy and Buddhism. Wim Henderickx has been Composer in Residence at Muziektheater Transparant since 1996 and in 2013 he joined the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra as Artist in Residence. The full DOUBLE CD (2016) with four of his works recorded by the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra with conductors Martyn Brabbins and Edo de Waart, received international acclaim including five stars in BBC Music Magazine.

Henderickx's first opera TRIUMPH OF SPIRIT OVER MATTER premiered in 2000 at La Monnaie in Brussels and ACHILLEUS, an opera for young people, had multiple performances in Antwerp and Copenhagen (2003 - 2006). VOID for music theatre toured internationally between 2007 and 2009 with Henderickx as the conductor. Wim Henderickx composed CANZONE for voice and piano for the semi-finals of the 2008 Queen Elisabeth Music Competition in Brussels. The Belgian National Orchestra premiered SYMPHONY No. 1 in Luxemburg and in Brussels in 2012 and it was recorded on the 2016 double CD with the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra. The full CDs Disappearing in Light (2011) and Triptych (2015) were developed in collaboration with the HERMESensemble & Jorrit Tamminga (electronics). VISIONI ed ESTASI for mixed choirs and electronics premiered at the Flanders Festival Mechelen as part of the 2015 TENSO Days, with 200 singers conducted by James Wood. In November 2015 THE QUEEN WITHOUT A COUNTRY for music theatre was selected as one of the winning productions by the International '2015 Music Theatre NOW' jury in New York.
